

It's You Who Loves Me More - by Joshua Klahn

Your soft, red lips
Your cozy, blue eyes
The walls of my heart
Are yours to demise

Your loyal love
Your restoring grace
My failures are met
With your smiling face

Chorus:
And I can't believe that you love me
More than I ever hoped for
It's you who "loves me, loves me more"

Your merciful patience
Your forbearing grit
My stubborn pride
Can't handle your spirit

You tell it like it is
You've got such unyielding spunk
It's you who reminds me
That I am the "punk"

[Chorus]

[Chorus]

It's you who "loves me, loves me more"...
